IT SCREAMS! Whitesburg, Letcher County, Kentucky, Thursday, April 22, 1965 Vol. 57, No. 49

Adult classes begin over county Monday

Letcher County adults who have not completed eight years of school will have an opportunity to do so beginning Monday night.

The county board of education is starting a series of classes in 17 county school centers to provide "basic adult education" for those 18 or older, either school dropouts or adults who have not attended classes for many years.

The program is non-vocational, and those who take part will not receive grades or school credits.

They will, however, learn the basic skills of reading, writing, speaking, listening and arithmetic.

Books and other materials used in teaching them will be based on such adult experiences as buying food and clothing, health habits, family relations, community activities, homemaking and general responsibilities of citizens.

Classes will be organized on three levels—primary, intermediate and upper. There will be 150 hours of instruction in the first phase. Classes will meet twice a week for three-hour sessions and will continue for 25 consecutive weeks.

The program is part of the "War on Poverty." It is being financed 90 per cent by the Office of Economic Opportunity and 10 per cent by the state. It will be administered by the Division of Adult Education of the State Department of Education and the Letcher County Board of Education. It will be put into effect by the Letcher County school superintendent and his staff.

The classes are free. There are no enrollment fees, tuition or other costs. Books and other classroom materials also are furnished free. Anyone interested in joining the classes should go at 6 o'clock Monday night (April 26) to one of these schools:

Cowan, Thornton, Lower Kingscreek, Eolia, Millstone, Mayking, Hemphill, Ermine, Campbell's Branch, Blackey, Whitesburg Grade School, Colson, Fleming-Neon Elementary School, Haymond, Kona, Kingdom Come Elementary, Kingdom Come Creek.

SUPERVISOR—Fred Back of McRoberts recently was promoted to supervisor of the county works projects with the Work, Education and Training Program, formerly known as the Unemployed Fathers' Program. Back has been a field worker since January, 1963, with the Department of Economic Security Division of Public Assistance. He assumed his new duties a few weeks ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Back of McRoberts and is a graduate of Jenkins High School and Lees Junior College, Jackson.

50-mph limit placed on proposed highways

Eastern Kentucky has to face the possibility this week that the Appalachian Development Act will not even improve its road system to any appreciable degree.

Eastern Kentucky residents had realized for some time that most of the act's provisions would do little of real value for poverty-stricken mountain counties, but they had pinned their hopes on the promise of an adequate highway system which the act seemed to contain.

This week, however, highway officials from the 11 states involved in the Appalachian program met in Washington and agreed on some proposals to cut the costs of the roads to be built under the act.

A principal economy measure is this: the roads will be designed for speed limits of only 50 miles an hour, because roads designed for higher speeds would be more expensive.

The officials also agreed on another economy. They will limit the number of overpasses, underpasses and interchanges in the road system. These facilities also are expensive.

Most major roads in Eastern Kentucky now permit 50-mile-an-hour speeds and one of the major road needs is for overpasses, underpasses and interchanges to avoid slowing traffic in congested areas.

Thus, the economy measures would appear to limit the road system's usefulness in Eastern Kentucky to a little relocation and curve-straightening on existing highways.

The highways also must be designed to meet traffic needs 20 years after their completion, so the officials agreed that parts of the system will be four-lane roads and others only two-lane. Some of the two-lane roads will have rights-of-way adequate for building additional lanes later.

These results of the highway officials' meeting with federal highway way administrator Rex M. Whitton were reported by a Washington correspondent for Scripps-Howard newspapers.

John Whisman, who represents Gov. Edward T. Breathitt on the Appalachian Regional Commission, estimated that as much as 50 miles of Kentucky roads may be included in the commission's first announcement of road starts, expected the middle of May.

Whisman said sections of US 23, US 119 and the extension of the Mountain Parkway are likeliest to get the first money.

The Appalachian bill provides $305,000,000 in federal funds for road construction. This is to be matched by $360,000,000 in state funds to build a 2,350 mile highway system.

The commission is expected to announce next month the location of the first 149 miles to be built, as well as corridors or general routes for another 1,000 miles.

The first highway construction under the new program will begin after the July 1 fiscal year start.

Not 'underprivileged'

A University of Kentucky professor told a Jenkins high school audience this week he is tired of hearing about the underprivileged children of Eastern Kentucky.

Speaking at a career day conference at Jenkins, Dr. Elbert W. Ockerman of UK observed that the appearance of Eastern Kentucky students was just as good and their behavior was much the same as

Caudill elected

Harry M. Caudill of Whitesburg was elected this week to the board of directors of the Council of Southern Mountains at the organization's annual conference in Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Rev. Philip Young of Hazard was re-elected vice president of the council.

This week in Whitesburg

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Collins were in Morehead Monday to attend ceremonies dedicating two new buildings at Morehead State College.

Randy Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Paul Collins, celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday with a party at the home of his parents. The children hunted Easter eggs and ate ice cream, cake and soft drinks. Guests included Cecilia Collins, Scott Allen Day, Alice Collins, Robert Lewis and Tim Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Combs and son of Premium were Easter guests of the Bruce Bankers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas of Somerset were week end guests of Mrs. Mabel Absher.

Mrs. Sandy Adams of Pine Mountain Junction is much improved after being ill this winter with flu. Visiting her over the holidays were her sons, Owen Adams of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Adams and children, Roger Wayne, Debbie Jane and Gary Bert, all of Hampton, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Don English and another son, Bill Adams. Mrs. Adams' daughter, Hattie, who lives in Paintsville, is having trouble with her voice again and is not able to talk except whisper.

Mrs. Charles Lee Adams of Lexington was visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Orna Adams, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Caudill have moved to Florida after spending the winter with his mother, Mrs. Rosanna Caudill of Eolia.

Mrs. Lona Day King is home after being a patient in the hospital at Whitesburg.

Mrs. Flora Standifer had most of her children in for the Easter holidays. There were Mr. and Mrs. Abb Humphrey and two children of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown and two children of Morrow, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Burmis Adams and daughter, Charlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Emery Lewis, Whitesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Standifer and son, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Standifer, Whitco; Mrs. Sarah Elkins, Cowan; Mrs. Sarah Breeding, Whitco; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cook and daughter of Indianapolis.

Kendall Ison, former teacher at Cowan School, is now employed with the Public Assistance Division of the Department of Economic Security. Mrs. Carl (Willie Mae) Boggs teaches in his place. The Isons have a new daughter, Valerie Ann. She is their first daughter; they also have a son.

Ronnie Amburgey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Amburgey, is a patient in the Marian Appalachian Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker and children were the Easter guests of her mother, Mrs. Nola Addington of Haymond. Other guests of Mrs. Addington included Mr. and Mrs. James Lowe of Pikeville and their two children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson and children of Tollytown and Mrs. Virginia Justice of Pikeville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Caudill visited his mother, Mrs. Rosana Caudill, at Eolia Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Maggard attended a household shower given Saturday night in McRoberts by Mrs. Ella Maggard in honor of Mrs. Esther Isom.

Jackie and Rayna Adams of Arlington, Va., spent the Easter holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hart of Craft's Colly and Joe Adams of Whitesburg, and other relatives. Shade Adams, who spent some time in the Veterans Hospital in Johnson City, Tenn., is home.

Mrs. Myrtle Adams and Mrs. Martha Hammock visited Mrs. Hammock's son, Lennon Hammock, Sunday afternoon after attending services at the First Baptist Church.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Collins Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Guy Combs and children, Donald Dean, Ronald Jean, Ricky and Robin Renae, all of Hazard; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gene Spangler, Debbie, Eddie and Mark, all of Jackhorn; Mrs. Thelma Combs, Sassafras; Misses Mildred and Helen Madden of Amburgey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nease and son Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Carl (continued on Page 11)

SPACE, ANYONE?

Boone Boy Industries, Inc., the home grown furniture industry which has been making strides in the Letcher area, is looking for a place to move.

The firm is being forced from its quarters on the old Stuart Robinson campus by establishment of an evangelistic college and hardware store there.

Mrs. Nathan Baker, president, said the company needs about 7200 square feet of space. Anyone who has space to rent or owns a lot is asked to contact her. The firm employs 20 workers.

A meeting in connection with the new college will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Stuart Robinson campus. Officials and some faculty members are expected to be announced then.

These bones won't walk around

By LARRY CAUDILL

The Kentucky mountaineer has a habit of putting his graveyard on the most prominently jutting point of the mountain within full sight of his domain.

There it may be pretty and picturesque, but it is difficult of access.

Often a heavy casket must be carried by the pallbearers up a craggy hillside for more than half a mile from the nearest point of approach by the hearse.

The gravesite possibly—probably—is on a rocky geological formation. A few graves were easy to dig, back when we had volunteer diggers from among the kith and kin. But now the gravediggers are apt to hit very hard rock, requiring digging, chiseling, shoveling and blasting.

And certainly we are running short on volunteer gravediggers, as Archie Craft and Bill Engle and Estill Blair well know.

For a long time I have had an aversion to the elaborate funeralizing incidental to the passing of one of us.

In the old days word of a death in a family spread rapidly enough by grapevine and word of mouth, without benefit of pony express, telephone or radio.

In those days, without summons, the men gathered with their gravedigging tools. Most of the time the family preacher was among them.

The women came, too, bringing food and such other things as the stricken family might need. They looked after the chores and tended the house and took care of the youngsters.

Before the availability of embalming it often was expedient if not necessary to do the burying as quickly as possible.

It is different after the availability of embalming. The mountain family often will protract the mourning period to four days or more. The embalmers—or call them funeral directors or morticians—apparently have worked it down to a three-day period.

When the radio announces you have died, Fritz Moore or Deward Banks or Glenn Polly or Nelson Bennett will have worked everything out for you to be in the ground—and probably forgotten—by the end of the third day thereafter.

They may have had to hire some of the gravediggers. The volunteer gravedigger simply is not available—he had gone to some other state, or has died.

I have long had a feeling that these mortal remains could be disposed of with less trouble, with less funeralizing, with less crocodile mourning, by quick cremation.

The last time I helped to carry a heavy casket of a dear old friend up a craggy hillside to the Jep Ison graveyard at Blackey, I decided "this is more trouble to us old guys than this old guy would want"—no matter what is the custom or wish.

Ever after that, I stated openly and frankly and flatly that it is my wish that these mortal remains shall be disposed of by cremation.

This idea brought varied reactions.

There was stark, silent horror. There was that of religious repugnance—"hit hain't the Lord's way."

Of doubt about the proper respect for the dead.

But none of those reactors are carrying that heavy and expensive casket up that craggy hill.

Your dead old body can use very little of religion or respect for the dead, or tears.

The body is of no further use, except perhaps to a medical school, a researcher, or as fertilizer. They of course are welcome to mine, or any part of it.

When time has loosed the shackles/ Of this useless mortal thing;/ When all has turned to dust again/ Please let there be no mourning/ At the bar when I am dead./ Just chuck the ashes in an old stone crock/ and hoist a drink instead.

SHERIFF

I would like to take this opportunity to tell the people of this county, especially the businessmen, for what I stand if elected sheriff.

I believe there should be an officer on duty in the sheriff's office 24 hours a day. I realize the problems you business people have in getting an officer when trouble hits. One of my deputies, or myself, will be on duty around the clock.

I believe the deputies in each community should be picked by the people themselves. I will go into each community and let the people that live there help me pick a deputy that will suit their own needs. I will have only deputies that are known to be honest and with high moral standards on my force. I do not believe in fee grabbing and any deputy found doing so will be dismissed.

I also intend to have a deputy to direct traffic at funerals, church gatherings, and other large social events in your community.

I want to state that if labor trouble should arise while I am your sheriff, I will uphold the law to the best of my ability without prejudice to either side. There is only one side to the law, and that is the right side.

I cannot get to each of you personally before the election, but I am asking all of you to give me a chance to show you what a young man can do as sheriff of Letcher County by giving me your vote on May 25.

CHILDREN RETURN TO HOMES AFTER EASTER VISITS; PARENTS LOOK FORWARD TO SUMMER VACATION TIME

By Mabel Kiser
About all of our visiting children now have returned home and many of them will not be returning for another visit until vacation time. All we parents are waiting with happy anticipation of a long visit with the grandchildren.

Wendell Meade is somewhat improved after surgery in the hospital in North Carolina, but still is very ill. Wendell is partially paralyzed, but is improving and is now able to take some soft food. His father, Sherman Meade, visited him over the week end. His mother, who had been there several weeks, returned with Mr. Meade for a few days.

The George Martin Kincers have a new baby daughter, Stephanie Ann, born April 1 at the Whitesburg hospital. This is their third child and second daughter. The parental grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Kincer; the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Caudill of Thornton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmouth Vick Howard Kincer of Covington were here this week for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Kincer will spend two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Celeste Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Maggard and family, Mayking; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Holbrook and family, Mayking; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Holbrook and family of Whitco and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Day, along with a host of kith and kin all spent a pleasant day picnicking at the Snake Valley Lake on Crafts Colly Sunday.

Wayne and Pearl Keel from Covington were here this week for a visit with Hershell Keel. Boyd Keel and Johnny Thomas of Covington were here for a visit with the Dewey Keels.

Soldier Elbert Bentley and his wife and children are visiting the B. F. Bentleys of Neon Junction this week. Elbert is just back from a stay in Vietnam. His wife and four children are stationed in Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Meade and Junior of Fleming were the Sunday dinner guests of the Astor Browns. The occasion was the birthday celebration of their son, Lester Ray Brown. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Maylon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Brown of Coeburn, Va., and Mrs. Myra Wright of Jack-horn.

Guests of the Millard Holbrooks over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holbrook and Bobby Holbrook of Lorain, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Craft of Springfield, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hayse and children of Dayton have returned to their homes after spending the Easter holidays with their parents, the Billard Meades. The young son of the Hayses is very ill and was hospitalized after their return to Ohio.

Friends of Mrs. Eliza Tolson will be sorry to learn that she is in the Jenkins hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Bentley and family of Indianapolis have gone back home after visiting their parents, the W. D. Bentleys and the Edgar Lucases on Thornton.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sergeant of Democrat have been visiting this week. Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Goins and children, Bobby and Kimberley, of Taylor, Mich; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sergeant and children, Wanda and Rodney of Lorain, have been here for the first time in two years. While here they visited the Sergents and the Troy Engles of Cumberland. S/Sgt. Ronald B. Sergeant, who has been in service eight years, now is stationed in Korea but says he will be stationed in California for a while in the near future.

The Sam Sergents are doing some extensive remodeling and painting on their home on Indian Creek.

It does our heart good to hear of friends away from home getting together and enjoying themselves. Mrs. Estill Boggs (Eura Meade) was very pleasantly surprised last week when she went to visit her sister, Mrs. Bertha Collier, who both live in South Shore, Ky. Bertha had planned a birthday party surprise for her sister, and surprised she was. Among the many guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Collier, Jimmy Collier, Estill and Michael Collier, and a host of friends. Mrs. Boggs had to cry just a little. Sherby Martin of Louisville is back in the hospital and is very seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud McElroy and son Keith were in from Cleveland this week for a visit with their parents, the Buster Bentleys. Jeffery, who has been staying with his grandparents and going to school, was very glad to see his brother, Keith.

Calling on the Lawson Halls Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fields of Ohio. Mrs. Fields was the former Miss Jean Smith, clerk in the drug store in Neon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green and Sherry and Mark were here this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Meade. While here Mr. Green visited his grandfather, Otho Bentley, in the Harlan hospital.

What a feast, what a happy birthday, for the Woodie McElroy family April 17 when they all gathered at their father's home in honor of his 61st birthday. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. McElroy, present were Mr. and Mrs. Bud McElroy, Jeff and Keith, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Cook and Gloria; Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Bentley, Eddie and Yvonne and Bruce Oullen; Mrs. Dortha Jean Johnson, Terry, Bobby, Danny and Jackie, all of Millstone; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Neon; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Fields, and Lisa and Miss Betty Webb, all from Dayton; Don, Larry, Ermit, Mrs. Opal Mason, Deborah and Ricky, all of Millstone. This was the first time the McElroy children had been together in a long time and they all enjoyed it.

Zing into spring! Chevrolet Impala

Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Coupe—one of two bucket-seated beauties for '65.

People who buy other big expensive-looking cars get one thing you won't (big expensive-looking payments)

It looks like a big car. And is—by almost any standard you want to apply.

Width? Nobody builds a car as much as one inch wider. Length? It grew three inches this year. Roominess? Every closed model's got three inches more shoulder room, front and rear, and more leg and foot room up front too. Luxury? Nice little touches like the look of mellow walnut across the Impala's instrument panel. And big touches. Like the fineness of the same Body by Fisher workmanship that makes some of America's most expensive cars look so expensive. How about the ride? Chevrolet engineers took the Jet-smooth one and smoothed it out even more this year. Also made it more stable by widening the wheel stance. Price? That's where Chevrolets fall way short of the other big expensive-looking cars. But we wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

One last question: How soon can you make a good spring buy on a Chevrolet? One last answer: Just as soon as you can get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.

FOUNTAIN AT NIGHT--"We who share the peace honor those who preserved it" reads the inscription above the names of the fallen on Letcher County's new War Memorial Fountain. The fountain, shown above as it appears lighted at night, is a part of the front of the new courthouse in Whitesburg. It was the idea of Mrs. Gobel Ritter, daughter of County Judge James M. Caudill. Mrs. Ritter, inspired by fountains she saw during a trip to Europe, conducted a campaign with the help of local service clubs, to raise the funds needed for the fountain. The water will be off next week to permit painting of the pool. The planter at each side of the fountain will hold seasonal flowers to be placed there by members of Delta Sigma Phi sorority. Design work for the fountain was contributed by the courthouse architect, William B. Moore of Louisville, in memory of his brother, John, who was killed in the Philippines during World War II. Above the fountain is a bell tower holding the old bell which had hung for many years in the attic of the former courthouse, an automatic mechanism tolls the bell at noon each day.

Re-elect

W. R. BILL JORDAN

Democratic candidate for STATE REPRESENTATIVE
Letcher County

Listed below are some of the achievements that I have helped accomplish as your State Representative:

1. Construction of a 48-acre stocked fishing lake.
2. Establishing a Regional Library in Letcher County.
3. Rebuilding many roads.
4. Construction of a bridge at Burdine School.
5. $500 increase in teachers' salaries.
6. Improvement in teacher retirement system.
7. $750,000 appropriation which helped to keep Whitesburg Appalachian Hospital operating.
8. Legislation that doubled the Rural Highway money.
9. Starting construction of Mountain Parkway from Whitesburg.
10. Construction of a new State Highway Garage.
11. Wilson Wyatt Trail stop Pine Mountain.
12. Improved legislation on our compensation and unemployment laws.
13. A supporter in Frankfort for construction of airport at Colson.

These things have happened and are not promises. I believe that with my experience in the State Legislature and in working with the Breathitt Administration, I will be in position to further help Letcher County. I will run on my record and I will continue to fight for the good of Letcher County and its citizens as I have done in the past.

MILLSTONE WRITER BELIEVES FINAL WINDUP OF ALL THINGS IS AT HAND ON BASIS OF RECENT OCCURRENCES

Did you Bible students ever read 11 Peter 3:8, Psalms 90:4 and the first chapter of Genesis? They tell us of the creation of the world in seven days with rest on the seventh and that a thousand years is as one day and night with the Lord. Now there were two thousand years from the creation of the world until the flood and two thousand years from the flood until the birth of Christ. There have been almost two thousand years since the birth of Christ and the six working days are almost gone. We are almost on the seventh day, or are entering the seventh thousandth year, or the day of rest. Which leads us to believe that the final wind up of all things is at hand.

Jesse Meade and family visited his parents, the Ballard Meades, Saturday night and enjoyed home-made ice cream and popcorn with his parents, his sisters, Ava and Florence, and their husbands, Bruce Hayse and Archie Craft.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Martin and children, Donna Darlene, Steve Duane and Judy have returned to their home in Lorain, Ohio, after visiting his parents, the Sherd Martins.

Uncle Ben Franklin has been very ill. He became ill Sunday and was taken to the Whitesburg hospital for treatment. He came back home but is still not able to be up and about.

Maryland Bates of Jonancy and several of his family visited the family cemetery last Sunday. They have been meeting here on Easter Sunday since the death of their mother, Mrs. Mattie Craft Bates, several years ago. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Meade, Jackson, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Bates and a grandson (Ercel's son), Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Berry and daughter, Beverly, of Torrence, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Bates and daughter, Mattie Ann, of Lorain; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams (Norma Bates), Robert Potter and two children from California; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Franklin and Jesse Bill and Lela. The Berry family spent Saturday night with the Franklins. Sunday they all brought a dish and had a picnic lunch in the yard of the Franklins.

Monroe Breeding is doing no good, after a long illness.

Calling to make their parents happy on Easter Day were Jesse Franklin of Lorain, John Franklin of Junction City, Ga., and Jack Franklin of Dayton.

Visiting here from Cleveland in honor of their mother's birthday were the sons of Mrs. Della Meade and Mr. Meade, Herbert and his family, James Arthur and his family, Ray and his wife. The Herbert and James Meades also visited their parents-in-law, the Joe Profitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker were here to see relatives and his parents, the Chester Bakers, on Crafts Colly.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Carrie Mooney and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hall were their sisters, Mrs. Hester Keith and Mrs. Ruby Jones and Pamela of Michigan City, Ind. The girls were here to see their desperately ill sister, Mrs. Mamie MaHone of McRoberts, who is very ill in the Harlan hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Mooney spent Easter Sunday with her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wampler of Mayking. Others visiting the Wamples were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wampler and children; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wampler, all of Michigan City, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Thacker, of Pikeville; and Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Adams and children of Ermine.

We extend sympathy to the family of Mrs. Brack Combs, who died last week. Mrs. Combs had moved here a very short time ago from Marlow.

There were 56 present at the Methodist Sunday School Sunday. Hennie Adams is back from Detroit and visited his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Richardson, the past week end.

Mrs. Ervin Hall is able to be out and about now. Sunday Mr. Hall drove her to Harlan to see her sister, Mrs. Mamie MaHone. This was the first time Mrs. Hall had been able to visit her ill sister. She has been confined to the house since she was injured in a car accident several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Gross visited his parents, the Walter Gros-es, in Harlan last week. His parents accompanied him to Leslie County where they enjoyed a good dinner with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Nolan. The Grosses have a new grandson, Thomas James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Preston, Fairborn, Ohio. This is the first child for the Prestons and is the Grosses' first grandchild.

The very welcome over night guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Bentley last week were Mrs. Curwood (Sabrina) Blair and sons, Danny and Charles, of Detroit, and Mrs. Cora Mullins, of Dayton. Mrs. Blair and Mrs. Mullins were here to see their ill father, Otho Bentley.

The children of the Martin Bakers were home for Easter. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker, all from Wayne, Mich.

Visiting their father, Ed Baker, were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker of Plymouth, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker, from Pendleton, Ind., and Mrs. Fred Queen from Portsmouth.

Mrs. Ish Dagnan and children have come home from Chicago and are living in the home of Junior Bentley. The Dagnans plan to purchase a home and are waiting completion of their plans before moving their furniture out of storage.

Mrs. Jake Bentley is visiting her mother, Mrs. Caroline Hall, in Jackhorn this week. Mrs. Hall, 84, is doing fair.

FAMILIES PICNIC AT BREAKS OF SANDY

By Mrs. Jim Revis
Phone 855-3841

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Fleming and boys and Linda Carol Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Rose Johnson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Fleming all had a nice picnic at the breaks of the mountains Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hall and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Stewart and Ola Sue Stewart and Michael West of Conyers, Ga., were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Stewart of Hemphill and Mrs. Eston Hall of Fleming.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Seals returned to Georgia with the Stewarts to look for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Potter had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Quillen, Jr., at Seco.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holbrook and family of Mt. Sterling visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Quillen, at Whitaker. They also visited his grandmother at Haymond, who has been sick.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gunnee and family, Mrs. Harold Cochran, of Lorain, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and family of West Virginia visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewellen and Chester and Ruby Bentley and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Anderson of Pekin, Ind., visited Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Fleming.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Vanover had a terrifying four days because they thought their son Alfred Vanover of Elkhart, Indiana, was in the tornado. But he called his family Sunday and said that while he was within a mile of the storm he was not hurt.

Miss Flo Adams was one of the Fleming-Neon seniors to go to Washington. They were gone from Tuesday until Sunday and certainly enjoyed their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams and children returned Sunday to Elyria, O., after being here a week because of the death of her mother.

A birthday dinner was held Easter Sunday honoring Mr. Ray Brown at his home on Rockhouse. It was given by his mother, Mrs. Astor Brown. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Meade and Junior of Fleming; Ray's cousin Florence Ann and Vickie Wright, his aunt and Uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Malhon Brown of Sandlick; his father and brother, Mr. Astor Brown and Elmer. He also enjoyed cards sent him by his aunt and uncle, Archie Brown of Lexington and Lida Collins of Ohio.

The Malhon Browns spent Sunday night with the Astor Browns and helped them do some gardening Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Wright of Deane spent Monday with me and we enjoyed the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson and daughter of Dayton, Ohio, were home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Johnson of Hemphill, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd of Goosecreek.

Telephone Talk

By J. M. GIPE
Your Telephone Manager

DID YOU KNOW THE TELEPHONE HOUR WILL SOON CELEBRATE ITS 25th ANNIVERSARY AND IT'S STILL GOING STRONG! Of course, there are lots of reasons for the success of the Telephone Hour. Good music. High quality performance. Top guest stars. But on a program like this, much depends on its musical director, Donald Voorhees.

Mr. Voorhees has directed the program since its beginning on radio in 1940. When the program switched to TV in 1959, he continued as conductor and director. Mr. Voorhees knows as much about handling a chorus as he does about directing an orchestra. What's more, when he can't find a piece of music to fit a special occasion, he sits down and writes one! One of his best-known compositions is the "Bell Waltz," theme of the Telephone Hour. Eileen Farrell, the great American soprano says this about Mr. Voorhees, "The man's uncanny. He knows what I'm going to do before I know myself."

Knowing what to do when there's an emergency during a broadcast is part of a conductor's life, too. Like the time a string on a great violinist's instrument snapped during a performance. Or the time somebody knocked a music stand over with a resounding crash. Mr. Voorhees has his orchestra trained to go on as if nothing has happened. And this isn't easy when you know a few million people are watching every move you make.

Listen to what he has to say about his life's work. "Music is a creative activity that is found almost everywhere in the world. It is the working out of a drive for expression. Therefore, I think that good music is music that has enduring meaning."

Mr. Voorhees knows what he's talking about. He has been bringing good music to America for a long time now. Like millions of other viewers, we look forward to many more years of good music with Mr. Voorhees and the Telephone Hour!

Funeral rites held at school for George Hogg of Kingscreek

Funeral services for George Hogg of Kingscreek were conducted April 14 at the Middle Kingscreek School by Elders Cullen Hogg, Andy Bates, Lawrence Day and Dewey Eldridge. Burial was in the family cemetery at Kingscreek.

Mr. Hogg died at his home April 12 after an illness of 14 months.

He was a son of the late Kelly and Sallie Fields Hogg. He was married to Hattie Ison, who survives him.

Survivors besides his wife are a son, George Hogg Jr., Springfield, Ohio; two daughters, Miss Hazel Hogg, London, and Mrs. Una Mae Caudill, Benham, and a sister, Mrs. Ida Whitaker of Roxana.

Moore and Craft Funeral Home handled funeral arrangements.

Orville Phipps dies

Funeral services for Mr. Orville Phipps were held February 1 at the Ebersole Mortuary in Conway Springs, Kansas.

He was born on June 28, 1896, at Draffin, Pike County, Kentucky, and was the eldest child of America and the late Andrew Jackson Phipps.

Mr. Phipps was for many years a resident of Whitesburg before moving to Utah in 1933.

His death came suddenly on the evening of January 27, 1965, of a heart attack in Wichita, Kan., at the age of 68.

He was survived by four daughters: Mrs. Osceola (Ocie) Guaraglia of Daly City, Calif.; Mrs. Loma Martin of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Lillian Manwell of Murray, Utah; Mrs. Mattie Sue Antry of Dugway, Utah; and one son, Bert Monroe Phipps of Salt Lake City, Utah. He is also survived by his mother, eight sisters and one brother, twelve grand-children and three great-grand-children.

Mrs. Guaraglia, Mrs. Martin and their brother flew to Kansas from their respective homes for the funeral services but Mrs. Manwell and Mrs. Antry were unable to attend because of ill health.

Burial was in the Conway Springs Cemetery of Conway Springs, Kansas.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Combs of Mayking.

A reception was held at the church immediately after the wedding. The couple left for a short honeymoon after which they will live in Detroit, where Mr. Combs is employed by General Motors. Out of town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sebey of Aberdeen, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cook of Maysville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Combs and Bobby and Duke Combs and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hall and children, all of Detroit; and Mrs. Woodie Breeding of Morehead and Miss Sue Cook of Aberdeen, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Bentley and daughters Glendith and Linda of Deane spent Easter with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Fox of Tolvertown.

Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Sexton, Malinda and Pamela, all of Camp Branch; Arlie Collins, Rockhouse; Lovell Collins, Camp Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Hennie Sexton, all of Sandlick, and Dr. Dow Collins. The occasion for all the friends and relatives' visit was Mrs. Collins' birthday. A son-in-law, Andrew Sergeant, and his daughter, Rosemary, came Saturday from Charlestown, Ind., and brought Mrs. Collins a big birthday cake. Birthdays are still a pleasure even if we have had over half a hundred of them.

Mrs. Delmer DePew of Pine Mountain Junction spent a pleasant week end visiting relatives in Tennessee.

Mrs. Lundy Addington is back at work in Hoover's department store after being a patient in the Harlan hospital. Mr. Addington is improved after being ill.

Delmer Kincer Sr., of Mayking is much improved after undergoing surgery at Williamson Appalachian Regional Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glenn Polly are parents of a son, Ronald Glenn Polly Jr., born recently at the Whitesburg hospital.

BEN A. ADAMS
as your JAILER

Four years ago when I asked you to elect me as your jailer, there was a tremendous job to be done in cleaning up the old Jail and Courthouse and keeping it in the best possible condition and in caring for those placed in my charge. I have worked continuously in fulfilling this trust you placed in me.

Now that we occupy the new Jail in the beautiful new Courthouse, I see even a greater job to be done in keeping this new building clean and beautiful.

You have been good to me and I have tried to do the job as you wanted it to be done-- with hard work and with patience and understanding for those in my care. I would like now to serve you for four more years with honest service as your jailer.

Your friend,

Ben A. Adams

JIM TUCKER Democratic candidate for COUNTY COURT

To the voters:

I would like for the people of this county to think about my race for County Court Clerk. I was sixteen years old when the incumbent candidate went into office. I am now thirty-two years and he is still in office and making an effort to be nominated again. Please think about this. The most powerful office in the world is the President of the United States and he can serve only two terms. The Governor of our wonderful state can serve only one term. The sheriff of our county can serve only one term. This is what I want each of you to think about. Please give me a chance to serve you in the way you want to be served. I beg each of you to examine my qualifications. I have two years of college. I have worked in the public since I was a young boy, and I would appreciate very much being your next County Court Clerk.
